MINISTER'S LETTER

INTENTIONAL KEEP OUR LORD JESUS IN ALL THAT YOU DO EACH DAY!

Sisters and Brothers,

Greetings, in the wonderful Name of Jesus, our Lord and Saviour.

We remember with sadness the ongoing wars around the world. The lives that have been lost and the suffering experienced by those whose livelihood, families and homes are now destroyed.

Coming closer to home, it is with extreme sadness that we note the shooting in Harlesden during the early hours of Sunday 15th December, killing a young woman and injuring two others eight minute walk from our Church (near Church Road). We need to continue to prayer for peace and encourage our young people to walk close with God.

As you read this message we have now entered the New Year, 2025. A time early in the year where we sometimes ask the question, 'Where has the year/s gone?' The older you get the quicker time appears to fly. What do you think? Is time really speeding up or is our awareness of the past bringing the notion of time to reality.

What were you hoping to achieve last year in 2024? Have you met your goals and aspirations?

Cont..

Read Luke 2:16-20

9. How do the shepherds share the story?

Read from the book page 11 paragraph 1 and 2

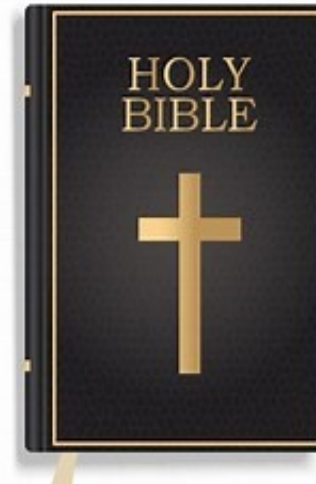

10. what does the term "Christ for the World" mean to you?

Read from the book page 11 paragraph 3 to the end.

11. Do you think , are there many people who know Jesus today?

12. what do you think of the term "Jesus is monopolized by the Christian church?"

Bible Studies on 11th Dec 2024.

Book Title: God is with us (pages 8-11)

Luke 2

Introduction:

Today we are reflecting on the Christmas story from St. Luke's Gospel.

Read Luke 2:1-2

Read from the book page 8 paragraphs 1-3

1. Was there anything new from the two readings?

Read from the book page 8 paragraph 4 page 9 para 1.

2. Is anything familiar to us today?

Read from the book page 9 paragraph 2 to the end.

3 What does the term "Real Christmas" mean to you?

Read Luke 2:2-7

4. Why were the people registering?

Read Micah 5:2

5. What is the reading from Micah telling us?

Read Luke 2:8-15

6. What do we know about the shepherds?

7. Was it easy to do a census at that time?

8. How are census carried out in our time?

As we now focus our attention on the future, time continues to ebb and flow. As we move through 2025, it is good to consider some realistic goals, target or resolutions for the year ahead. As an individual, are you able to commit to any of the following alongside your other focus:

- A) reading your Bible every day
- B) praying daily
- C) attending a Bible study session
- D) telling one person each week about Jesus.

As a Church, we now need to review and to hone our Natural Church Development actions plans that we started last year. We need to sharpen ourselves to build the Kingdom of God. We have looked at our interaction as small groups and have been grappling with the activity of trusting each other. We have also looked at sharing our faith / making make disciples.

If you have any other suggestion for betterment please speak to any of the Elders, use the suggestion box and pray about the ideas. Ask yourselves, 'What is God calling me to do'?

In January and February you may experience the colder and harsh weather in the UK; yet the days are lengthening. We are reminded that spring is near. Be also assured that God near and is with us.

Wishing you a Happy New Year.

Rev. Edwin.

Bible Study Wednesday 13th November.

Paul's teaching to the new churches at Colossae and Laodicea.

INTRODUCTION

Laodicea was located a few miles from Colossae, in Asia Minor. The Laodicea church was probably not founded by Paul but by some of his converts. The city was wealthy in trade and commerce. But later Christ would criticise the believers in Laodicea for their lukewarm commitment read ( Rev 3.14-22). Paul wanted this letter passed on to the Laodicean church indicating that false teaching may have spread there. Paul was counting that ties of love would bring the churches together against heresy and encourage each other to stand together, and remain true to God's plan for salvation in Christ.

Read Colossians 2.1-5— Questions

1. What do you think of Paul's introduction to the church at Colossae?
2. What was Paul's stated goal, and how would you describe it?
3. What are your thoughts of Paul's statement in verse 5?

Read Verses 6 -9

4. What are Paul's thoughts and instructions verses 6-7?
5. How do you see the narrative in verses 8-9?
6. What is being taught in verses 9-10?
7. What was the significance of the act of circumcision in verses 11-12?

2. I, the LORD am with thee, Be thou not afraid; I will help and strengthen, Be thou not dismayed. Yea, I will uphold thee , With My own right hand; Thou art called and chosen in My sight to stand. Refrain.

3. for the year before us, O what rich supplies! For the poor and needy Living streams shall rise; For the sad and sinful Shall His grace abound; For the faint and feeble, perfect strength is found. Refrain.

4. He will never fail us, He will not forsake; His eternal covenant He will never break. Resting on His promise, what have we to fear? God is all-sufficient for the coming year.. Refrain.

Great is the LORD.

Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised in the city of our God, in the mountain of His Holiness. While I live and keepth Truth, I will praise the LORD. I will sing praises to my God, while I have my being, which made heaven and earth. Which keepth Truth forever, put our always in the LORD.

O come to us, abide with us, our Lord Emmanuel.

Scriptures to read: Psalms 146.

It is our custom to welcome all visitors to our services. We trust that they enjoyed fellowship with us. Refreshments are usually served after the service in the hall. Please join us, if possible.

*****

Congratulations, prayers and blessings to all those who have celebrated a birthday or an anniversary since our last Focus. We continue to ask for prayers for members and friends.

_____

Condolences are extended to the recently bereaved families. We remember before God all those who mourn the loss of loved family members, friends and colleagues.

Kindly keep them in your prayers, as well as those who have been absent from church services for a very long period.

Cont..

While we also recognise the WATER relations and all that they add to our lives, might we be wise enough to give them their due credit. Yet at the same time, may that same wisdom allow us to see which relations ought to be our top priority. At the end of day, when all is said and done, the words of our elders still ring true – BLOOD THICKER THAN WATER.

Prayer

Creator God, help us to safeguard our familial blood relations especially in difficult times. Amen

by Revd. Mikie Roberts

_____

Appreciation

Many thanks to all Brothers and Sisters who contributed towards Church funds through your Christmas card donations.

May God richly bless you all and those who will be donating later.

Thank you all once again.

Cont..

Yet, it was the same electorate that a few months ago told him that he was too old to run for a second term. That's WATER relation. It is the same electorate that chose not to elect his vice president less than a month ago. That's WATER relation. It is the same electorate that in a few years' time may not even remember his name. That too is WATER relation.

Even though he is president of the USA, it is Joe, the father, who was there for his son's birth and witnessed up close in his adulthood, seeing him going down the wrong path but not being able to deter him. Yet he still loved him as his son. That's BLOOD. It is the same father Joe, who would have comforted a three-year-old Hunter after his mother and sister died in an automobile accident. That's BLOOD. Joe the father would have been there to try and stabilize Hunter when tragedy again hit the family with the death of his older brother Beau.

That's BLOOD.

Politics aside, I see in Joe Biden's action this week a true demonstration of this island proverb – BLOOD THICKER THAN WATER. As the holiday season draws near, in the midst of our rushing here and there, trying to get the perfect gift or meet end of year deadlines, might we pause long enough to appreciate and give God thanks for the BLOOD relations that are in our lives.

No reasonable person who looks at the facts of Hunter’s cases can reach any other conclusion than Hunter was singled out only because he is my son – and that is wrong. There has been an effort to break Hunter – who has been five and a half years sober, even in the face of unrelenting attacks and selective prosecution. In trying to break Hunter, they’ve tried to break me – and there’s no reason to believe it will stop here. Enough is enough.

For my entire career I have followed a simple principle: just tell the American people the truth. They’ll be fair-minded. Here’s the truth: I believe in the justice system, but as I have wrestled with this, I also believe raw politics has infected this process and it led to a miscarriage of justice – and once I made this decision this weekend, there was no sense in delaying it further. I hope Americans will understand why a father and a President would come to this decision.

As I read Biden’s statement, it led me to today’s FF which is a very popular local saying that we all grew up hearing as children on the Caribbean Antigua – BLOOD THICKER THAN WATER. Simply put, your family relations take priority over every other connection or relationship in life. It is true Biden has had a political relationship with the American electorate for the vast majority of his life.

FRIDAY FOCUS

The first few days of this last month of the year continues to draw attention to US politics. Now that the elections are behind us, all eyes are focused on Biden's actions with just a few more weeks to go before the end of his presidency. There are several actions that he has taken that have drawn attention. But the one that has been trending is the December 1st 'full and unconditional pardon' that Biden gave to his son Hunter. Just in case you have not had the chance to read his full statement, permit me today to present it to you.

Today, I signed a pardon for my son Hunter. From the day I took office, I said I would not interfere with the Justice Department's decision-making, and I kept my word even as I have watched my son being selectively, and unfairly, prosecuted. Without aggravating factors like use in a crime, multiple purchases, or buying a weapon as a straw purchaser, people are almost never brought to trial on felony charges solely for how they filled out a gun form. Those who were late paying their taxes because of serious addictions, but paid them back subsequently with interest and penalties, are typically given non-criminal resolutions. It is clear that Hunter was treated differently.

The charges in his cases came about only after several of my political opponents in Congress instigated them to attack me and oppose my election. Then, a carefully negotiated plea deal, agreed to by the Department of Justice, unravelled in the courtroom – with a number of my political opponents in Congress taking credit for bringing political pressure on the process. Had the plea deal held, it would have been a fair, reasonable resolution of Hunter's cases

CHILDREN'S CORNER

Find the missing word and complete the passage (1 Corinthians 12 vv 12 - 27)

12 Just as a body, though one, has many _____, but all its many parts form one body, so it is with _____ 13 For we were all baptized by [c] one Spirit so as to form one body—whether Jews or _____, slave or free—and we were all given the one Spirit to drink. 14 Even so the body is not made up of one part but of many.

15 Now if the _____ should say, “Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body,” it would not for that _____ stop being part of the body. 16 And if the ear should say, “Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body,” it would not for that reason stop being part of the body. 17 If the _____ body were an eye, where would the sense hearing be? If the whole body were an ear, where would the _____ of smell be? 18 But in fact God has placed the parts in the body, every one of them, just as he wanted them to be. 19 If they were all one part, where would the body be? 20 As it is, there are many parts, but one body. 21 The eye cannot say to the hand, “I don’t need you!” And the head cannot say to the feet, “I don’t need you!” 22 On the contrary, those parts of the body that seem to be weaker are _____, 23 and the parts that we think are less honourable we treat with _____ honour. And the parts that are unrepresentable are treated with special modesty, 24 while our representable parts need no special treatment. But God has put the body together, giving greater honour to the parts that lacked it, 25 so that there should be no _____ in the body, but that its parts should have equal concern for each other.

Christmas 2024

We send you Christmas greetings with a bit of news from Amersham.

Ian and Rachel enjoyed overseas visits to Portugal, Sweden and Czechia. We also spent a long weekend in Malvern with Jonty, Matthew and Zoe. Rachel celebrated her 60th birthday with a family party. Ian has now been Minister of Amersham Free Church for twelve years and is really grateful for their love and support. Rachel is still teaching, and this year has spearheaded an Environmental Area and Learning Barn project at her school.

Matthew and Zoe enjoyed a belated honeymoon to Thailand and are loving their band and regularly 'gig' most weekends. Matthew continues to teach at a school on the outskirts of Aylesbury.
